

Subject:	PROPOSAL RE JUDGES' & JURY EXPENSES	Annex no. -	23
Author:	Dr. Rainer EXI Hoenle, IPC Delegate, Germany	Agenda ref. -	9.5
Date:	15 November 2010	Page	1 of 1

15.11.2010
 IPC Delegate Germany
 Dr. Rainer EXI Hoenle

Motion to change wording in the description of issue No 10 Bureau Interim Decision and extend proposal of the IPC Bureau for reimbursement procedure for jury members

Judges' Expenses – matter raised by Rainer 'Exi' Hoenle

Instead of:

“Judges have accommodation and meal costs covered by an Organiser Travel reimbursement is limited”

Correct to

“Judges have accommodation and meal costs covered by an Organiser, which are indirectly paid by the participating FAI/IPC members for their competitors to IPC through parts of the entry fee. Travel re-imburement partially paid through the sanction fee paid by the competitors is limited”

Instead of:

“Jury members pay for accommodation and meals and the IPC reimburses these costs. Jury members do not have upper limit restriction on travel allowance.

Correct to:

“Jury members costs for accommodation and meals are paid through IPC reimbursements, which is taken out of income in parts from the sanction fees paid by the competitors. Jury members do not have upper limit restriction on travel allowance”

Instead of:

“The following proposal will be presented to the 2011 IPC Plenary meeting.
 That Jury travel expenses be capped in the same manner as Judges' travel expenses.”

Extended Proposal:

“The following proposal will be presented to the 2011 IPC Plenary meeting.
 Any travel expenses of IPC-members in connection with IPC services and duties according to the IPC rules, regulations and By-laws will be reimbursed by applying the same method for everyone. The procedures must be proposed by the finance working group, must be based on existing average reimbursement calculations and must be approved by the IPC Plenary.”