

GAC FAI World and Continental Championships Trophies Tracking

Draft

1. Introduction

This document give instruction, how to track the GAC FAI World and Continental Championships trophies, the list of all trophies, duties of the holders, responsibility, return the trophies, special duty of the International Jury President and history of the trophies.

2. List of trophies

2.1. Precision Flying

2.1.1. World Precision Flying Championships

- City of Nottingham Trophy for World individual Champion
- Canada Trophy for World individual Landing Champion
- Royal Aero Club of the United Kingdom Sword for World individual Navigation Champion
- Ottley Trophy for World team Champions
- New Zealand Trophy for World team Landing Champions
- Air BP – challenge cup for the best World individual low experienced pilot
- Argentina Trophy for the best World individual woman pilot
- Masonhall Sportsmanship Award for World Championship true sportsmanship

2.1.2. European Precision Flying Championships

- Swedair Trophy for European individual Champion
- Saab Scania Trophy for European team Champions

2.2. Air Rally Flying

2.2.1. World Air Rally Flying Championships

- World Air Rally Champions for World crew Champions
- World Air Rally Team Champions for World team Champions
- Air BP Trophy for the best navigation and observation crew

2.2.2. European Air Rally Flying Championships

- European Air Rally Champions for European crew Champions
- European Air Rally Team Champions for European team Champions
- Slovakia Trophy for the winning crew

3. Duties of the trophies holders

Every holder of any General Aviation Championship Trophy has the right to hold the trophy concerning, within the period from receiving of the trophy to the start of the next GA Championship. The holder must care the trophy, maintain and save it. During the period of its holding shall arrange the engraving the name of the holder and the year of its awarding (if on the trophy exist the place for engraving).

4. Responsibility of the NAC

NAC of the any General Aviation Championship Trophy holder is responsible for return the trophy concerning, to the organisers of the next GA Championship, where the trophy will be again awarded. NAC of the trophy holder is responsible for loss or any damage of the trophy. In case of loss or any damage of the trophy shall pay all costs for repairing or duplicate trophy production.

5. President of the International Jury duty

5.1. Before start of the Championships

With reference to the FAI Jury Members Handbook, Appendix E, part A 2 a) must President of the International Jury during pre-event meeting with Competition Director check, if respective trophies are available and if are not damaged. If any trophy is not available or is damaged, the International Jury President shall state it to his report to the GAC FAI.

5.2. After Trophies Awarding Ceremony

President of the International Jury will fulfil the "Trophy Protocol" (see Appendix 1). Every new holder of the trophy and his Team Manager (as the representative of the NAC) will sign the receiving of the trophy. To the remark can be noted, if trophy is damaged or any relevant remarks. The fulfilled and signed "Trophy Protocol" will be part of the Report by the Jury President to the Air Sport Commission (see FAI Jury Members Handbook, Appendix D).

6. History of the General Aviation Championships Trophies

History of the General Aviation Championships Trophies will be part of the official GAC FAI web site. The trophies holders will be put to this web site according to the Report of the President of International Jury, where must be named holders of all the awarded trophies.

--- END ---

TROPHY PROTOCOL

Name of Championships:

Place and date:

We, undersigned participants, confirm the receiving of the respective Championships trophies and undertake to care the trophy, maintain and save it. In case of loss or any damage of the trophy we will pay all costs for repairing or duplicate trophy production.

[illegible]